MEDIA KIT / INTERVIEWS & SPEAKING

Ellen Wier

MA, MT-BC

Music. Consciousness. A life shaped by sound and spirit.

THE STORY

At twelve, music called me home.

A childhood near-death experience, being drawn back to her body by music, and a lifelong commitment to service are at the heart of Ellen's work.

SHORT BIOGRAPHY

Ellen Wier, MA, MT-BC, is a board-certified music therapist, spiritual and transpersonal coach, author, and near-death experiencer based in San Diego. She holds a master's degree in Transpersonal Counseling. After a near-death experience at twelve, music drew her back to her body and inspired a lifelong path of service. Ellen is the author of Waking Up in Heaven: Living with Purpose through Afterlife Wisdom and host of Life After Life with Ellen. Her work explores music, crystal singing bowls, imagery, consciousness, and connection with the higher self.

“Ellen has ruined me for other sound healers.”

Jack Canfield | Coauthor, Chicken Soup for the Soul

Media inquiries: wellnessmusictherapy.com/contact-us

For hosts & producers

INTERVIEW ANGLES

The music that brought me home

A childhood near-death experience and the calling that followed.

Afterlife wisdom in everyday life

Purpose, spiritual connection, and the themes behind Waking Up in Heaven.

Sound as an invitation to listen within

Music, crystal singing bowls, imagery, and connection with the higher self.

SELECTED APPEARANCES & WORK

Woo Woo with Rachel Dratch | I Crossed to the Golden Realm

We Don't Die | Sandra Champlain, episode 459

Explore Ellen's complete interview collection on Spotify

Life After Life with Ellen | Spark TV

Beyond the Grave | Documentary

Waking Up in Heaven | Book

READY-TO-READ HOST INTRODUCTION

Our guest is Ellen Wier, a board-certified music therapist, author of Waking Up in Heaven, and host of Life After Life with Ellen. Her childhood near-death experience inspired a lifelong exploration of music, consciousness, and spiritual connection.

BOOKING & ASSETS

Request an interview or speaking appearance

Open full-size approved portrait

Please include your outlet or event, audience, topic, preferred dates, and recording format. Earlier interviews may appear under Ellen Whealton.

Questions that open a conversation

01 What do you remember from your near-death experience at twelve?

02 How did music draw you back to your body, and how did that shape your calling?

03 How has your understanding of that experience changed over time?

04 What does connecting with the higher self mean in your work?

05 What role do music, imagery, and crystal singing bowls play in spiritual exploration?

06 What can someone new to this work expect from a sound experience?

07 What everyday practices have helped you live with greater purpose?

08 What inspired Waking Up in Heaven, and what do you hope readers take with them?

09 What have the conversations on Life After Life with Ellen taught you?

A NOTE FOR PRODUCERS

Ellen speaks from her personal near-death experience and professional work as a board-certified music therapist. Please use Ellen Wier, MA, MT-BC in introductions and graphics. Her master's degree is in Transpersonal Counseling; do not identify her as a licensed counselor or psychologist.

Booking: wellnessmusictherapy.com/contact-us